Aaron Hoelting is doing a great job on the lighting project. The project is almost 2/3 completed.

Seams made a motion to dispose of the old light fixtures to whoever makes a request as long as available, seconded by TSwearingin.

Bill Byrns had nothing to report.

Randy Zerr, County Engineer reported that they are working on snow removal and preparing for spring thaw. He thanked the public for their patience.

Dooley presented the January Monthly reports for the Clerk of Court and The Treasurer's Office. The receipts for the Clerk of Court were $410.11. TSwearingin made motion to accept and approve the January reports, seconded by Seams.

Supervisor meetings: The supervisors attended a Courthouse Security, the Special Budget Work Session meeting and the Assessor's Budget Hearing meeting. Dotts also attended a census meeting and Decategorization (DECAT) meeting. Dotts is now the Chairman of the DECAT Board. Seams attended Statewide Workforce meeting and the Executive Committee Meeting for South-Central Iowa Workforce Development Area (SCIWA). Seams also toured Wayne County with the Executive Director of SCIWA and will be setting tours for SCIWA and IHCC personnel with East Penn, Dairiconcepts and Shivvers in the near future. TSwearingin has a 1015 Transit meeting on Thursday.

Public Comments

Rhonda Bennett asked who sits on the Compensation Board. Dooley responded Tom Swan, Lucas Whitney, Linda Norris, Verle Norris, Amy Sinclair, David Wampler, Daren Relph. There was discussion regarding if Amy Sinclair should be on the Board since she is a State Employee. Dooley responded that Brian Shelley has served on the Board for years and he was a State Employee. Dooley will be reviewing if Amy Sinclair will continue to represent the Auditor's Office in the future.
