Public Comments on Agenda Items only: Don Seams asked if all employees are paid based on the same work period?

Lange responded "Yes." That payroll change was made in September.

Engineer Dillon Davenport reported that snowplows went out over the holiday weekend. Some issues with the plows were identified and will be addressed before the next storm. Davenport also reported that the bridge decking on 150th Street was poured, and the dirt work is still needing be completed before reopening to traffic. Also, Davenport will be advertising for help, A couple of employees have resigned recently from Secondary Roads Department.

Department Reports: Kellie Anderson, Development Director has emailed their newsletter and it has been added to the county website.

Supervisor Meetings:

Moore has two meetings today.

Lance and Wilson attended the Chariton Valley Region Planning and Development TAC meeting along with Engineer Davenport. They discussed lowering or raising the railroad overpass on Highway 14 North. They also reviewed the bridge projects in the county.
